

TRAILS

NAME	LEVEL	DISTANCE	COLOUR	DIRECTION
Squirrel	Easier	1.5k	Green	One-Way
Forest Lane	Easier	1.2k	Green	One-Way
Memory Lane	Easier	1.0k	Green	One-Way
Rabbit	More Difficult	2.4k	Blue	One-Way
Telemark	More Difficult	6.8k	Blue	Two-Way
Summer Road	More Difficult	0.5k	Blue	Two-Way
High Country	More Difficult	3.0k	Blue	Two-Way
Cut Off	More Difficult	0.6k	Blue	Two-Way
Easy Street	More Difficult	0.8k	Blue	One-Way
Panorama Ridge	More / Most Difficult	5.4k	Blue / Black	One-Way
Fern Creek	More / Most Difficult	9.2k	Blue / Black	Two-Way
Connector	Most Difficult	0.6k	Black	Two-Way
Crystal Rim	Most Difficult	7.8k	Black	One-Way
Racing Trails	Most Difficult		Black	One-Way

- Last 1k of Telemark is One-Way. Start the trail heading west from the Chalet
- Panorama Ridge and Fern Creek have both "More Difficult" and "Most Difficult" ratings depending on the section of trail and the direction of travel.

Check the trail descriptions below

TRAIL DESCRIPTIONS

- Squirrel - Flat with moderate hills
- Forest Lane - Flat with moderate hills
- Memory Lane - Rolling terrain with some more challenging hills
- Rabbit - Rolling terrain with numerous challenging hills
- Telemark - As above with elevation gain (check elevation numbers on trail map)
- Summer Road - Straight with elevation gain
- High Country - Gradual climb with significant elevation gain
- Cut Off - Gradual climb with some challenging hills
- Easy Street - Rolling terrain with some challenging hills
- Panorama Ridge - Rolling terrain, steep hills, More difficult up to short cut, most difficult past
- Fern Creek - Rolling terrain with challenging hills and significant elevation gain. No short cuts (Fern Creek is less challenging done counter clockwise - take Squirrel to Cut-off to Fern Creek)
- Connector - Rolling terrain with some steep hills
- Crystal Rim - Rolling terrain with steep hills and major elevation gain
- Racing Trails - Are all less than 1k and have many steep hills and sharp corners

Scale